Terms and conditions

General terms which apply to all levels of authority

- 7.1 Only you may appoint a third party to access or withdraw from your Account.
- 7.2 If you appoint a third party to withdraw from your Account they will automatically be able to enquire on your Account also.
- 7.3 Withdrawals may be for any amount and may be made at varying intervals of time.

7.4 You:

- a) indemnify us against all loss, liabilities and costs incurred directly or indirectly as a result of the appointment of a third party
- indemnify us against all loss, liabilities and costs incurred directly or indirectly in connection with any action by a third party under their appointment or any payment made from your account on their instruction
- release us from all claims and liabilities in connection with any act or omission relating to the appointment of a third party to your Account, and
- release us from all claims and liabilities in connection with any action by a third party under their appointment or any payment made from your account on their instruction.
- 7.5 However, we remain liable for any loss or liability which, by operation of law we cannot exclude.
- 7.6 This authority takes effect on the date that we amend our records to note the appointment and continues until you cancel it by telling us in writing. Cancellation also takes effect on the date that we amend our records to note the change.
- 7.7 We may cancel the appointment of a third party as an authority on your account by telling you in writing.
- 7.8 In the event of the death of an account holder, the authority given under this form will automatically terminate.
- 7.9 Third parties may not set up Direct Debits on your Account or give other third parties access or authority on your Account.
- 7.10 Where you give authority to a company or firm such as your stockbroking or financial advisory firm:
 - the company or firm will give us details of people who can transact on its behalf
 - b) you acknowledge and agree that the company or firm may do this and that the people nominated by the company or firm can withdraw from your Account in accordance with the authority you have given it
 - we will only act on requests from the company or firm, if the person requesting the withdrawal has been nominated by it in accordance with our procedures
 - d) the company or firm must tell us in writing if any nominated person no longer has authority. If we have not been advised in writing that the person no longer has authority, then that person may still operate your account and you cannot claim that he or she is not acting for you until we are told by the company or firm in writing.
